

Create a Plan for your Child

Parents play an invaluable role in advocating for their child. To help that process, start by creating priorities. Then, share these priorities with your medical and therapeutic team. Be sure to evaluate your plan every 6-12 months.

Top 5 Issues to Address & Behaviors to Minimize:

1.

2

3.

4.

5.

Top 5 Things Your Child Needs to Learn:

1.

2

3.

4.

5.